Dear Parishioners,
Below is a reflection by Dr. Scott Hahn”

“The story of David and Saul in today’s First Reading functions almost like a parable. Showing mercy to his deadly foe, David gives a concrete example of what Jesus expects to become a way of life for His disciples.

“The new law Jesus gives in today’s Gospel would have us all become “Davids”—loving our enemies, doing good to those who would harm us, extending a line of credit to those who won’t ever repay us.

“The Old Law required only that the Israelites love their fellow countrymen (see Leviticus 19:18). The new law Jesus brings makes us kin to every man and woman (see also Luke 10:29–36). His kingdom isn’t one of tribe or nationality. It’s a family. As followers of Jesus, we’re to live as He lived among us—as “children of the Most High” (see Luke 6:35; 1:35).

“As sons and daughters, we want to walk in the ways of our heavenly Father, to “be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.” Grateful for His mercy, we’re called to forgive others their trespasses because God has forgiven ours.

“In the context of today’s liturgy, we’re all “Sauls”—by our sinfulness and pride we make ourselves enemies of God. But we’ve been spared a death we surely deserved to die because God has loved and shown mercy to His enemies, “the ungrateful and the wicked,” as Jesus says.

“Jesus showed us this love in His Passion, forgiving His enemies as they stripped Him of cloak and tunic, cursed Him and struck Him on the cheek, condemned Him to death on a cross (see Luke 22:63–65; 23:34). “He redeems your life from destruction,” David reminds us in today’s Psalm.

“That’s the promise, too, of today’s Epistle: that we who believe in the “last Adam,” Jesus, will rise from the dead in His image, as today we bear the image of the “first Adam,” who by his sin made God an enemy and brought death into the world (see 1 Corinthians 15:21–22).” www.stpaulcenter.com

Please continue to pray for peace in The Ukraine, for those we left behind in Afghanistan, and those whose lives are touched by the Pandemic.

You are in my daily prayers, please pray for me.

God bless you, Fr. John C. Burnette

Lenten Bible Study

Beginning Tuesday, March 5th
For five weeks

10:00 AM, St. Mary’s Rectory

6:30 PM, St. Raymond Rectory

We often hear about Jesus’ Passion and death in the Gospels, the Rosary, the Mass, the Stations of the Cross, and many other devotions. Because we hear about Christ’s Passion so often, it’s easy for us to lose sight of its profound significance. But imagine if you had never heard these stories before. Imagine experiencing them for the very first time, and realizing that Jesus is a real person who really suffered and died for you and for me so that we can have eternal life.

In No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk Through Christ’s Passion, we are going to walk step-by-step with Jesus on his journey from his Agony in the Garden to his Crucifixion on Calvary. Every step of the way we will unpack Old Testament prophecies, messianic expectations, and connections to our Catholic Faith. We will see that practically every word in these Gospel accounts of Christ’s passion is charged with great significance. As we unpack these details, you will experience a deeper understanding and appreciation of God’s immeasurable and unconditional love for you—and you will grow closer to Jesus than you ever have before.

Participants of No Greater Love will receive a book and workbook. We will meet every week for prayer, fellowship, discussion, and an engaging video presentation presented by Dr. Edward Sri, which was filmed on location in the Holy Land, so we can see the actual locations where Christ’s passion occurred!

Cost: $20. to help cover the cost of materials

Register: Form in church entry or Father’s email as listed on the front of the Bulletin.

Mowing Bids

St. Maurice Parish is taking bids for the 2022 mowing season. Bids should be submitted on a cost ($) per mowing, with mowing beginning in the Spring and ending in the late fall. Interested parishioners shall submit bids to Fr. Burnette no later than Noon on Sunday, March 6, 2022. Bids may be hand delivered to Fr. Burnette, or submitted via e-mail to him at jburnette@dio.org

Mowing shall include the entire parish grounds including around and behind the church and rectory, the former school yard, around the Bob Montgomery residence, and the triangle lot SE of the Montgomery residence. The term "mowing" shall include mowing, trimming, and stick/branch pick-up and removal, plus any miscellaneous litter pick-up. All sticks, branches and litter shall be hauled off-site. Mowing does not include fall leaf removal or herbicide spraying.

If no parishioner is interested in mowing the parish grounds, we will open it up to non-parishioners. St. Maurice Parish retains the right to accept or reject all bids. For further information or questions, please call John Fleigle at 217.823.1661 or Dale Brockamp at 217.414.2804.
