Dear Parishioners,

Today as we celebrate the Feast of Pentecost, we remember the graciousness of God in giving us the Holy Spirit in Baptism and Confirmation. The Spirit is given to guide us through this world with all its challenges to our home in Heaven. The gifts of the Holy Spirit in scripture and Tradition are as follows.

“Wisdom is the ability to exercise good judgment. It distinguishes between right and wrong, seeks and upholds truth and justice, and balances personal good with the common good. It is in touch with reality, demonstrates common sense and is prudent. It often increases as a person advances in years and gains life experience. In the Old Testament, wisdom is personified by “Sophia,” the mythical mother of faith, hope and love; while in the New Testament, wisdom is personified by Jesus himself.

“Understanding is the gift of intelligence and enlightenment. It is the ability to think clearly; to perceive, comprehend and interpret information; and to have insight and discern meaning.

“Counsel is good advice. It is the ability to teach, inform, guide, direct, warn, admonish, recommend and encourage. It is not limited to the giving of advice but extends to the ability to graciously receive it. The gift is needed by parents, teachers, coaches, supervisors, mentors, therapists, lawyers, clergy, consultants, elders and spouses — anyone who offers advice to others.

“Fortitude is an unwavering commitment to God or a proper course of action, and it shows itself as moral strength, courage, determination, patient endurance, long suffering, a resolute spirit, stamina and resiliency.

“Knowledge is the ability to study and learn; to acquire, retain and master facts and information; and to put what is learned to good use for constructive purposes.

“Fear of the Lord is awe, reverence and respect for God. It acknowledges that everything comes as a gift from God, downplays personal achievement and self-sufficiency, and gladly offers praise, worship and adoration to God.

“Piety is personal holiness, and it includes devotion to God, prayer, virtue, goodness, decency, self-mastery, innocence, the avoidance of sin and obedience to God’s will.”

These gifts to of use to us must be acted on. Without our cooperation the gifts lie dormant. It would be like having a million dollars in the bank and never using it or having a thousand acres of great farmland and never planting seeds.

What might happen in our life if we chose one of these gifts and really put it into practice?

You remain in my prayers, please pray for me.

God bless you, Fr. John C. Burnette

Catholic Near East Welfare Association

We are collaborating with our partners on the ground to serve those who are at are in need—as we have for 70 years. www.cnewa.org/campaigns/ukraine

Catholic Relief Services

CRS and Caritas partners on the ground are in Ukraine and in bordering countries, providing safe shelter, hot meals, hygiene supplies, transport to safe areas, counseling support and more. www.crs.org

Please continue to pray for those who are suffering in Ukraine, for the brave soldiers and citizens who are defending their people, for a change of heart by President Putin, for those we left behind in Afghanistan, and those whose lives are touched by the Pandemic.

A Prayer

Lord, you teach us that you will bring good out of everything we place into your care. Help us to see the good you will bring from the great suffering of the people of Ukraine.

Jesus, I trust in you!

FOR  YOUR MARRIAGE

“Lifting his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying, ‘Father, they are your gift to me’” (Jn 17:24). Jesus viewed his disciples as gifts from the Father. Do you see your spouse as a gift from your heavenly Father? Take today to thank God for each other.

Titles of Mary: Queen of the Apostles

Mary is the Queen of Apostles because she welcomes the word and will of God in all its mystery, without demanding anything from it. Throughout the entire narrative of Christ's passion, death, resurrection, and ascension into Heaven, we never hear her ask for details, explanations, or a schedule of events from the Lord. She simply and courageously listens and responds to the word of her Son, however that word expresses itself in the circumstances of the moment. "Let it be done to me, according to your word" (Luke 1:38) is her constant refrain, and on the day of Pentecost, as she "devoted [herself] to prayer" (Acts 1:14) for the coming of the Spirit upon the Church, she whispers these powerful words a second time—not only for herself, but for all the apostles, including us.
