Father's Corner

Rich only in what matters to God

As human beings, we hunger to be satisfied. But since our hunger knows no boundaries, we naturally yearn to possess more and always more. We are satisfied with the latest smartphone model or the wide-screen TV until a newer model with more features appears. And again, is anyone satisfied with his or her salary? No one for sure. So it seems that the more we have, the more we want to have.

Jesus teaches us that we already have more than we can imagine: the fullness of life that God offers to those who trust in him.

And that's why in the Gospel, Jesus seems perturbed at the question about inheritance put to him by someone in the crowd. Jesus is not the judge or arbitrator of such earthly matters, what the 1st reading calls "vanity". He is rather the judge and arbitrator of what matters most to God: lasting happiness and the fullness of life in God.

Many of us are so caught up in the things and demands of daily living that it is hard for us to assess where our focus actually lies. We need to reflect on what we say matters the most to us and what our manner of living says matters most to us. Therefore we need to reflect on what Jesus says matters most and what God is offering us.

Stay blessed!

Bell Tower Campaign

Previous Donations	$100,727
July 24th Collection	+$7,980
Total	$108,707

While we have passed our goal of $90,000, that figure would cover half of the cost of the bell tower repairs with the other half coming out of our savings, so the continued gifts are still helpful.

We will also need to do some interior work in the chapel due to water damage from the tower after the bell tower work is completed. This isn't covered by our current campaign.

Thank you to each and everyone who has given toward the campaign, no matter how big or small. Your generosity is greatly appreciated!

I would like to thank everyone for the cards, kind words and congratulatory wishes about the Woman of Distinction award. I would also like to thank everyone that came to the Cathedral to celebrate with me. I truly appreciate everyone's kindness.

Thank you to Fr. John for nominating me and to Fr. Florent for his kind words.

I am truly grateful to have been chosen for this honor.

Thank you to all.

Marlene Marten
