FATHER'S COLUMN

When Jesus disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them,
for they were like sheep without a shepherd.

What brings us to pursue new ways of thinking or new ways of living? Sometimes the cause is surprising and extraordinary. For example, Mother Teresa changed her religious order and the direction of her ministry when she encountered poor people dying alone on the streets of Calcutta.

Usually, though, the cause is more subtle and quite ordinary. For example, struggling with illness and suffering leads us sometimes to change our perspective on what is truly valuable for us in life. In any case, change in our ways of thinking and living is usually a result of some kind of significant encounter with certain persons and certain events.

The crowds pursue Jesus who teaches them and leads them to deeper encounter with him. He reveals himself to be their Shepherd and Teacher; the One who heals and cares; the One who leads them to rest and refreshment.

When our pursuits lead us to an encounter with Jesus, new ways of thinking and living become possible.

Many kinds of daily pursuits demand our time and attention. Work, school, meals, cleaning the house, taking care of the yard, and parish ministry need our attention and all must be tended to. The Gospel of this Sunday challenges us to look beyond immediate pursuits, to opportunities for encounter with Jesus who, as Shepherd and Teacher, is present in all these daily situations.

Jesus is there to guide us to new ways of thinking and living. To bring us to this, Jesus never rests.

A few quick reminders:

The stipend for Mass intentions is $10.00 per Mass. If you would like to give Father money over this amount as a gift, please give him the extra money separately or make a note with your request that a portion is a gift for Father. Stipend money is sent to Father's order and not given directly to Father.

Candles at St. Raymond are $3.00 each. Please put your candle donation in the collection basket appropriately marked.

Thank you!
